Exhibit C - Confidentiality Agreement

1. Definition of Confidential Information

For the purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean all non-public information, including but not limited to, trade secrets, financial data, proprietary information, customer lists, business strategies, and intellectual property, that is disclosed to or accessed by the Employee during the course of employment with the Company.

2. Obligation to Maintain Confidentiality

2.1. Employee agrees to hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and shall not disclose, reproduce, or make use of it, except for the benefit of the Company or as required in the performance of the Employee's job duties.

2.2. The confidentiality obligations shall continue indefinitely for as long as the information constitutes Confidential Information.

3. Exceptions

The obligations under this Agreement do not apply to information that is:

Publicly known at the time of disclosure;

Rightfully obtained from a third party not in breach of a confidentiality obligation;

Independently developed by the Employee outside the scope of their employment and without use of the Confidential Information.

4. Return of Confidential Information

Upon termination of employment or at the request of the Company, Employee agrees to promptly return all Confidential Information, including any copies, notes, or derivative works, back to the Company.

5. Remedies

Employee acknowledges that any breach of this Agreement may result in irreparable harm to the Company, and therefore agrees that the Company shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, including injunctions and specific performance, in addition to any other remedies available under law.

6. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of [State].

7. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior oral agreements between the parties.
